

Consortium Agreement

Student Name

Social Security #

And The Fund for American Studies enter into Consortium with

Home Institution

Upon the completion of the term, the student will receive Georgetown University course credit and an official transcript. The student is also eligible for scholarship funding towards the cost of the term from The Fund for American Studies, a private nonprofit organization.

The Fund for American Studies confirms the following Information:

Program Costs
Tuition and Room for 6 credits	$6,795	Estimate of Books	$200
Tuition and Room for 9 credits	$7,795	Estimate of Transportation Costs	$350
		Estimate of Personal Expenses	$350
		Board	$700
Estimate of Total Expenses with 6 units			$8,395
Estimate of Total Expenses with 9 units			$9,395

For the enrollment period of June 7 – July 30, 2010 the above-named student is enrolled in six (6) or nine (9) units (please circle one).

The Home Institution confirms that the above-named student receives financial aid calculated in one of the following ways (please check one):

Nine month basis

Twelve month basis

Received no financial aid

Certification

The Home Institution considers the student named to be enrolled full time in a degree program for the term stated above. The Home Institution agrees to provide payment(s) to the above-mentioned student, if eligible, under the Federal Pell Grant, FFELP, and or campus-based programs for the term mentioned above.

The Fund for American Studies agrees not to provide federal funds to the above-mentioned student for the term above; the Home Institution will act as a transfer agent for these funds. The Consortium Institution further agrees to notify the Home Institution of the student's withdrawal from all classes at their institution prior to the conclusion of the term above.

Home Institution: _____
Name Title Date

The Fund for American Studies: _____
Name Title Date